GET THE APPETITE FOR SUCCESS

Does your uniform have a personality? Does what you wear complement your vibe and reflect the ethos of your business?

The very basic principles of how to dress at the front-of-house are beautifully illustrated in this magazine with pages of inspirational photography, clever styling ideas and useful branding tips so you and your business can boast a big personality!

When we introduce a new style into our Artisan Collection we consider how it works as an all-round piece. We design versatile and practical pieces that can be styled in many different ways to suit a diverse range of people, which is of course, what you need from a staff uniform. Each piece is an essential building block and is designed to complement other styles within the collection, so you can mix and match, safe in the knowledge that your uniform will come together effortlessly.

Start with a shirt as the foundation piece; pick and good one and it will drive your imagination and inspire choices for the rest of the uniform. We're confident that you'll find the perfect shirt on pages 23 - 36, again with plenty of styling ideas.

What comes next is down to you; you may choose to elevate your look with a waistcoat or take a denim direction with some jeans inspired aprons.

Well dressed teams carry themselves better and have a positive attitude towards teamwork, which will impress customers and create a welcoming environment for everyone.

SHIRTING

WITH A VINTAGE TWIST

Premier's stylish selection of shirts are the perfect choice for hardworking staff and have been created to stand up to the rigours of repeated washing and everyday wear. We have a considerable choice of shirting fabrics that complement our extensive range of Aprons so you can build out a uniform effortlessly.

Get playful with contrast collars and cuffs and look to stripes, spots and checks but never overlook the elegance of a crisp white shirt – it is the most basic building block to any uniform. Use stand-out accessories like waistcoats, braces or a bow tie to complete a truly unique look for your business.
